

TALENTINO SEND & INCLUSION CONFERENCE

DAY TWO – Wednesday 27th November

08:00-08:30 GUIDED RELAXATION TO START THE DAY – Kiki Stanton, Kiki Kirby Coaching

09:15 WELCOME TO THE CONFERENCE – Jenny Connick, Founder, Talentino

09:20 KEYNOTE SPEAKER– John Yarham, Deputy CEO, Careers & Enterprise Company

10:00 – 10:45
Making Work Experience Work – Vicky O'Connor, Careers Leader, Westminster School
How to Manage Transition Effectively – Amanda Cheney, National SEND Development Manager, Talentino
Enterprise for All – The Rolling Scones – Lucy Roche, Deputy Headteacher, Fairfield School

11:00 – 11:45
Increasing Employer Engagement – Julie Grant, Careers Leader, Brookfields School
Creating High Quality Careers Resources and Delivering Careers Advice to SEND Students – John Paley RCDP, Careers Adviser, Resourceful Careers/Careers Wave
SEND Pupils in Mainstream – an Introduction to the MORE programme & curriculum/Q & A – Amanda Cheney, National SEND Careers Manager, Talentino

12:00 – 12:45
The Gatsby 10 year Review report is out – highlights and developments around Inclusion Jenny Connick Founder Talentino
Enterprise and SEND – Peter Jones Tycoon Enterprise Competition SEND – Bull Muirhead, CEO, Peter Jones Foundation
Improving Parent and Family Engagement – Brandon Mills, Retired Headteacher, Brookfields School

12:45 – 13:45 LUNCH BREAK

13:45 – 14:30
An interview with Jenny Connick & Alexandra Price, Senior Commissioning Editor, Trotman Publishing – Introduction to the Big Inclusive SEND Careers Handbook
Find out about Supported Entrepreneurships – Jethro Picton, SEND Strategy and Innovation Targeted Employment, Children and Young People with Disabilities Service, Essex County Council
Fingers crossed for the new PSE Qualifications for Career SEND Group One – Amanda Cheney, National SEND Careers Manager, Talentino

14:45 – 15:25
Changing lives, one job at a time – Maurice George, CEO, Ways into Work
A Family perspective – Ruth Pearse, CEO, Parenting Special Children
National Grid's Employability and Supported Internship Programme - Louise Saunders Group Safety & Health Project Manager & EmployAbility Programme Lead National Grid

15:25 – 15:30 CLOSING COMMENTS – Jenny Connick, Founder, Talentino